

Cooking Stories for Kindergarten

12 decodable practice stories for ages 5 to 6, written by LUCALabs.

How to use these stories

These stories use phonics patterns appropriate for kindergarten readers. Read aloud together. Have your child sound out each word. The blanks are for your child's name.

Story 1 / 12

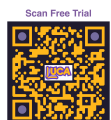

_____ had a pan and a pot. He got an egg and set it in the pot. The pot got hot. _____ took the egg out and set it in a cup. "It is all set!" _____ said. Jan came in. _____ gave her the egg. Jan had a bit. "That is yum!" Jan said. _____ sat and had his too.

Story 2 / 12

_____ had jam and a bun. She got a mug of milk and sat at the desk. _____ set the jam on the bun. She took a big sip of milk. "That is good," _____ said. Her pal Max came in. _____ made him a bun with jam too. Max sat and ate. "This is the best," Max said.

Story 3 / 12

_____ had a bag of fig and a cup of jam. He set the fig on a tin pan. He set the jam on top. _____ gave the pan a tap and set it on the hot pad. It got hot and made a big hum. _____ took it off. "It is all set!" he said. He had a bit. It was yum.

Cooking Stories for Kindergarten

12 decodable practice stories for ages 5 to 6, written by LUCALabs.

Story 4 / 12

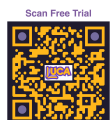

_____ got a ham from the bag. He set it in a big pan. The pan got hot. The ham made a big hum. _____ let it sit. Jan came in. "That is a good ham," Jan said. _____ cut the ham and set it on a mat. Jan and _____ sat and ate. _____ gave Jan a cup of milk too.

Story 5 / 12

_____ had a pot. She got a cup of milk and set it in the pot. She got a fig and cut it up. The fig went in too. _____ let the pot sit and get hot. It made a hum. She took it off the hot pad. "Come and get it!" _____ said. Sam came in and had a big sip.

Story 6 / 12

_____ had a bag of nut and jam. He set the nut in a cup and the jam in a pot. _____ got a pan and set it on the hot pad. He made a big bun. The bun got tan and hot. _____ set jam on top. "That is good!" he said. He sat at the desk and ate the bun.

Cooking Stories for Kindergarten

12 decodable practice stories for ages 5 to 6, written by LUCALabs.

Story 7 / 12

_____ and her pal Kim made a big pot of jam. _____ got a bag of fig. Kim got a cup and a pot. _____ cut the fig up. Kim set the fig in the pot. The pot got hot. The jam got red. "It is yum!" _____ said. Kim got a bun and set the jam on it. _____ had a bun too.

Story 8 / 12

_____ had an egg and a pan. He set the pan on the hot pad. _____ got the egg in the pan. It got hot and made a pop. _____ gave it a tap with a rod. The egg sat in the pan. "Not bad," _____ said. He set the egg on a tin. His pal Tom came in and _____ made him one too.

Story 9 / 12

_____ had a mug and a jug of milk. He set the milk in a pot. The pot got hot. _____ got a cup of jam and set it in. He gave it a mix. The jam and milk made a tan mix. _____ had a sip. "That is yum," he said. He got a bun and dipped it in. The bun got wet and soft.

Cooking Stories for Kindergarten

12 decodable practice stories for ages 5 to 6, written by LUCALabs.

Story 10 / 12

_____ and his pal Kim went to the hut. _____ got a ham and set it in the pan. Kim got a bun from the bag. The ham got hot in the pan. _____ cut it up. Kim set the bun on a tin. _____ set the ham on the bun. "Here you go," _____ said. Kim took a big bit. "Yum!" she said.

Story 11 / 12

_____ had a pot and a bag of fig. She cut the fig up and set it in the pot. The pot got hot. _____ got a cup of jam and set it in. It made a big hum. She took the pot off. "It is all set!" _____ said. Jan came in. _____ gave her a bit. "That is yum!" Jan said.

Story 12 / 12

_____ had jam and a bun. She set the jam on the bun and took a big sip of milk. Her pal Kim came in. "Can I have one?" Kim said. _____ made her a bun with jam too. Kim sat and ate. "This is so good," Kim said. _____ gave a nod. She made one more for Sam.

