

Dinosaurs Stories for Kindergarten

12 decodable practice stories for ages 5 to 6, written by LUCALabs.

How to use these stories

These stories use phonics patterns appropriate for kindergarten readers. Read aloud together. Have your child sound out each word. The blanks are for your child's name.

Story 1 / 12

_____ went to see a big set of old rib rocks. The rib rocks sat up on a rod. "That is so big!" _____ said. Kim sat by him. She saw the big leg rock on the end. _____ got his pad and made a map of it. "You are good at that," Kim said. _____ set the map in his bag.

Story 2 / 12

_____ and his pal Tom went to dig in the sand. _____ hit a big rock with his hand. He got a kit and dug by the rock. A bone came out. "I got one!" _____ said. Tom ran up. The bone was big and had a zig zag on it. _____ set it in a box. Tom gave him a pat on the back.

Story 3 / 12

_____ had a box of rib rocks. She set them on the rug. The big rib went here. The leg rock went there. _____ set the top rock on last. "I did it!" she said. Kim came in and saw it. "That is so good!" Kim said. _____ sat by Kim and saw the rib rocks on the rug.

Dinosaurs Stories for Kindergarten

12 decodable practice stories for ages 5 to 6, written by LUCALabs.

Story 4 / 12

_____ went to a pit in the sand. A man gave him a kit. _____ got down and dug. He hit a big rock. "I got it!" _____ said. The man came and saw the rock. It was a rib. _____ set it in a tub. He dug and got a leg rock too. The pit had a lot in it.

Story 5 / 12

_____ and Jan went to see a big set of old rib rock. The rock had a big leg and a long back. "How big was it?" _____ said. Jan got a map from the desk. "It was big!" Jan said. _____ sat and saw the rock set. "I am so glad we came," _____ said.

Story 6 / 12

_____ had a pad with a big map on it. He sat on the mat and saw a big rock set with a fin on the back. "That is the best," _____ said. He got his pen and made a map of the rock set. Max came in. "Is that from the mud pit?" Max said. "Yes, from long back," _____ said.

Dinosaurs Stories for Kindergarten

12 decodable practice stories for ages 5 to 6, written by LUCALabs.

Story 7 / 12

_____ dug a big pit in the sand. He hit a rock. _____ got his kit and dug it out. The rock was long and had a zig in it. "I bet this is a leg," _____ said. He set it in a bag. Back at the hut, he set it on the desk. It was a good dig.

Story 8 / 12

_____ went to a big tent. In the tent was a set of old rocks. A rib, a leg, and a big top rock sat on a mat. _____ saw the top rock. It had big gaps in it. "How old is it?" she said. A man said it was from long back. _____ got a pad and made a map of it.

Story 9 / 12

_____ and his pal Kim went to a dig in the mud. _____ got a net and Kim got a kit. Kim hit a rock and dug by it. A tip of a bone came out. "I see one!" Kim said. _____ ran up. The bone was big and tan. Kim set it in a bin. _____ gave her a pat. "Good job," he said.

Dinosaurs Stories for Kindergarten

12 decodable practice stories for ages 5 to 6, written by LUCALabs.

Story 10 / 12

_____ sat on the rug. He had a set of old rock bits. He set the leg by the rib. Then he set the top on it. "I made it!" _____ said. His dog came up and took the leg rock. _____ ran to get it. The dog hid it in the yard. "Bad dog!" _____ said. He dug it back up.

Story 11 / 12

_____ went to the tent to see the big rock set. She saw a rib rock and a leg rock on a mat. _____ got her pad and made a map of it. A man came up. "You are good at that," he said. _____ gave a nod. She set the map in her bag and went to see the next one.

Story 12 / 12

_____ and her pal Kim went to dig in the mud. _____ hit a rock with her kit. She dug by the rock. A rib came out. "I got one!" _____ said. Kim ran up and saw it. The rib was big and tan. _____ set it in a bin. Kim gave her a pat. "Good dig," Kim said.

