

Magic Stories for Kindergarten

12 decodable practice stories for ages 5 to 6, written by LUCALabs.

How to use these stories

These stories use phonics patterns appropriate for kindergarten readers. Read aloud together. Have your child sound out each word. The blanks are for your child's name.

Story 1 / 12

_____ had a red box with a lid. He gave the lid a tap. The box lit up. A gold bug came out. It sat on his hand. Jan sat by him and saw it. "How did you do that?" Jan said. _____ gave the lid one more tap. The bug went back in. _____ hid the box in his bag.

Story 2 / 12

_____ had a hat. When she put it on, she got small. She hid in a cup on the desk. Jan came in. "_____? _____!" Jan said. _____ took the hat off and got big again. She sat on the bed. "How did you do that?" Jan said. _____ gave her the hat. Jan put it on and got small too.

Story 3 / 12

_____ had a wig. When he put it on, his dog sat up and said, "Hi, _____." _____ fell back. "You can not do that!" _____ said. The dog gave a wag. "I can now," the dog said. _____ took the wig off. The dog sat and did not say a thing. _____ put the wig back on. The dog said, "That was fun."

Magic Stories for Kindergarten

12 decodable practice stories for ages 5 to 6, written by LUCALabs.

Story 4 / 12

_____ had a pen that made his pad glow. He made a map of a big hill. The map came to be. A hill sat in his den. "No, no!" _____ said. He took the pen and made a big X on the map. The hill went away. _____ sat and let out a hum. He hid the pen in a tin.

Story 5 / 12

_____ had a bag of sand. She set it on the mat and gave it a pat. The sand went up. It made a dog in the air. The dog ran and sat by _____. "You are not bad," she said to the sand dog. But then the dog fell back into sand. _____ took the bag and put the sand back in.

Story 6 / 12

_____ had a lamp. When he gave it a rub, a fog came out. In the fog was a small man. "I will give you one thing," the man said. _____ said, "A big hat." The fog went away. A big red hat sat on the mat. _____ put it on. It was too big. But the man had left.

Magic Stories for Kindergarten

12 decodable practice stories for ages 5 to 6, written by LUCALabs.

Story 7 / 12

_____ had a box with six gems in it. She took one out and set it on the mat. The gem lit up and made a hum. The rug came up off the sand. _____ sat on the rug. It went up. "I am up!" _____ said. She saw the top of the hut. The gem went dim and the rug came back down.

Story 8 / 12

_____ and his pal Max had a jug. _____ said it was not a jug but a thing of big fun. He gave it a tap and a puff of red fog came out. The fog made the van go up. "We are up!" Max said. _____ gave the jug one more tap. The van came back down. Max sat and said, "Do it again!"

Story 9 / 12

_____ had a net. When he went out at night, the net lit up. _____ ran it in the air. A dot of sun came in the net. It sat in the net and gave off a glow. "I got it!" _____ said. He took the net to his den. The dot of sun lit up the den. _____ sat and saw it glow.

Magic Stories for Kindergarten

12 decodable practice stories for ages 5 to 6, written by LUCALabs.

Story 10 / 12

_____ had a quilt. When she sat on it and said, "Go," it went up. She went over the hill and the bog. "This is the best!" _____ said. She saw the top of the big red hut. The quilt came back down in the yard. _____ got off. She hid the quilt in a bin and went in.

Story 11 / 12

_____ had a red rock. When she set it on the mat, the den lit up. Her pal Jan came in. "How did you do that?" Jan said. _____ took the rock off the mat. The den went dark. She set the rock back on the mat. The den lit up again. "It is all in the rock," _____ said.

Story 12 / 12

_____ had a tin box. When she gave it a tap, a puff of fog came out. In the fog was a small cat. The cat sat on the mat. Kim came in and saw the cat. "Is it from the box?" Kim said. _____ gave the box a tap. The fog came back. The cat went in. _____ hid the box in her bag.

